

Office of Multicultural Interests - Mission

Office of Multicultural Interests of WA
Responding to the Needs of Australia's
Multicultural Community Perth, OMI, 1993.

The Office of Multicultural Interests is a policy unit which provides assistance to the Western Australian Government and its agencies and support for community initiatives.

Mission

... to promote a harmonious community where Western Australians of diverse cultural and linguistic backgrounds have equality of opportunity...

The Office of Multicultural Interests co-ordinates the development of State Government policies and programs to ensure the well-being of people from diverse cultural, linguistic and religious backgrounds, and monitors the impacts on these people of such policies and programs.

This is achieved by providing policy advice, having an advocacy role, liaising with a wide range of individuals, Government and community organisations and promoting public awareness through a range of specific initiatives.
